

What Factors Affecting My Business Do I Influence?

Some business factors are totally within Your control, some are not. We can control what time we start our day, we can not control the weather. Let's measure what effect each of the following situations has on Your network marketing business.

	1 Great Influence	2 Some Influence	3 No Influence
My up-line sponsor's personal assistance
When my company back-orders product
My spouse's attitude toward our business
The number of opportunity meetings in my area
The local economy
The advertising rates in my local newspaper
My down-line's recruiting efforts
My down-line's personal consumption of product
The momentum of my network marketing company
Regulatory regulations in the industry
Competition from other companies
Retail pricing policy of my popular products
The compensation plan for my company
Company's changes in policies and procedures
Training available in my area
My sales skill level
My leadership ability
My down-line distributors' attitude			